HE CAME DOWN.

There was a little dog down below.
And a Yankee down below:
"Come down," said the Yankee to the Dog, but the Dog was rather slow.
"What terms," he asked, "will you make with

If I come town to you?
You? Oh, Mr. Yankee man,
That'll never, never do!"

The Yankee took him with his gun
At the Duke of War, he said,
"I'll shoot you if you don't come down
Before I count three..."

Athwart the Dog's dark visage spread
A terrifying frown,
But the Yankee counted "one" and "two,"
And the little Dog came down.

Mr. H. E. H. Jones, after an absence of nearly twenty years, is in the city and may remain and engage in business.

The Louisville Tennesseans will be Pittsburgh, and the next Triennial Convocation of the Knights will be held in Louisville in 1901.

Acting Judge Salter had a battery of eight drums lined up in front of him at one time yesterday, and each fellow got a prescription.

Mr. A. J. Murphy, a lawyer in Mayfield, and O. M. Muller, a native of Webster, were at Covington, the Rev. Howard T. Cree preparing the ceremony.

The War is over,
Vacation is over,
And nothing business.

Turn out and most surely by advertising in THE LEDGER.

The contract for the new bell for the Washington Fire Company was yesterday awarded to the Cincinnati Bell Founder. The weight of the new bell will be 1,235 pounds—about 300 pounds heavier than the old.

Jane Baily, the C. C. O. operator at Greenup, went with a friend to a Portsmouth hotel a few days ago. The lady who waited on their table proved to be the wife of Rake Martin at Lexington and deserted two years ago. She was soon arrested and lodged in the state hospital.

The Ledger yesterday had all the telegraphic news of the world up to 6 o'clock Friday morning. Another paper had telegraphic matter that closed at 12 o'clock Wednesday night.

The Ledger is the only Mayfield paper that can be depended upon for prompt and reliable telegraphic news, as it has the exclusive right to the use in this city of the Kellogg Service. No other paper can get it without THE LEDGER's consent; but certain circumstances have prevented any likelihood of a courtesy that would have been freely granted under proper conditions.

Just off a busy thoroughfare, under an arched way, is a stately wrought-gate, much worn by the hand of time. It is decorated with fantastic rails and provided with a pre-digious knocker. The latter, however, is not needed, for the gate yields to an energetic push. It stands in a yard in front of a large, half-gabled, half-timbered, where an Italian woman is hanging out clothes among the gaunt white tombs. It is twelve years since any one has been buried there, and the guardian told me that many people came to him to inquire about the condition of "an old" grave. An American woman, and he had to send them to the old graveyard. The monument in question is that of the author of "Home, Sweet Home."

"In memory of John Howard Payne, author of 'Home, Sweet Home.' Born June 9, 1791; died April 9, 1854. Elected A. D. 1853."

Under the arch is the eagle surrounded by the motto, "E Pluribus Unum," and the words: "Died at the American Cemetery in Tunis. Aged 60 years and 10 months."

It is to be noted that this is the author's grave.

WILL THE PEOPLE

SUBMIT?

Following are the net results of the infamous Goebel Election Commission:

Democrats absolutely control the electoral system in every county in Kentucky. In 24 counties they have a majority on the Boards of Registration and one Republican Election Commissioner; in 13 other counties there are two Democrats and one People's Commissioner; and in the remaining counties we have only Democratic Boards.

Republicans are in a helpless minority of one against two in 96 counties, and in 24 counties they have a majority on the Boards that are masters of the election machinery, pass upon all election contests and force them into most infamous decisions that are open to suspicion.

The Republican organization was not permitted to select the few Republicans appointed, and it is a notorious fact that the so-called "Populists" are nearly all Democrats in name, being voted and acted with the Democratic party on every important occasion in recent years.

The action of Congress that was put over when James Farnas was elected a member of the State Election Commission has been thrown off, and the Goebel conspiracy is revealed in all its hideousness.

Has the Republican party been such an enemy to the state and Nation as to justify these outrages against law and decency to drive us to keep it from power?

Is the supremacy of WILLIAM GOEBEL and his high-handed followers so important to the welfare of Kentucky to permit this unexampled rape of the ballot?

Will the people submit?

THERE isn't a one-horse country town anywhere that would permit such a disgrace as that "business house" just East of the handsome new Opera-house. It remains to be seen whether the City Council will permit it to remain there, a menace to the new building.

THE old Opera-house was burned by reason of the fact that the City Council permitted owners of adjoining property to extend a firetrap up to within four feet of the stage. There is well-grounded belief that if the case was pushed the city could be made to pay every dollar of the loss sustained by the Firemen. Now that generous citizens have aided the Firemen to erect a handsome new building it also is threatened from the same source. Will the gentlemen of the City Council permit it?

THE SIXty-fourth Congress of the United States, says The Times Star, will an important factor in shaping the destiny of the United States. The life of the Fifty-fifth Congress does not expire until March 4th, 1899. It is the same Congress that gave us the Spanish-American War, and Washington without honor to itself, and can again be expected to deserve the confidence voted in it by the people.

The successors of the men who compose the Fifty-fifth Congress are to be elected the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1898, which will be November 8th. This election will determine the outcome of the votes. Giving consideration to political precedents in the United States, it is on the card for Democrats to take the polls in off years. In the second term of GRANT the Democrats secured a majority in Congress. They repeated the performance in the last years of HAYES's and ARTHUR's Administrations. The Republicans turned the tables in both the Administrations of GROVER CLEVELAND, and the Democrats controlled Congress during the last two years of HANSON's term as chief executive of the United States.

This is not encouraging for Republicans success this year, but precedent does not rule, nor does it vote. The people do both. The American people are constantly in an expectant state, forgetting the disappointments of today in the hope of something better tomorrow. They are ever ready for a change. How often the political complexion of government has been varied for other reasons than that of money. There is no other danger than that of money. There is no other danger than that of the approach of election. The indefinable something that alters election results in off years, the caprice of the American people, may prevent a brilliant and sweeping Republican victory.

The party in power should not meet with a reverse this off year. It is of the utmost importance to the country that the President should have the full and earnest support of Congress in the arduous problems which confront him, and which will confront him in the next two years. Every man should give this subject the thought and study it deserves so that intelligence will triumph over precedent.

The Senate is fairly secure to the Republicans. There are at present forty-five members who are in political harmony with the President. Eleven of these are to be re-elected and successors chosen. Three have already been selected, Ohio, Massachusetts, Oregon, and the Republicans to the Senate. One, Clark of Wyoming, is lost to the Republicans. It is confidently believed that Maine, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont and Wisconsin will all send Republicans to the Senate. This will give the Republicans 40 votes of the entire 90 in the Senate, a slender majority it is true, but there is hope of more to swell the list. The prospects of Republican Legislatures being elected in New Jersey, Indiana, New York, North Carolina, bright, while an earnest and honest effort to elect a Republican majority in the Legislatures of California, Delaware, West Virginia and Nebraska is being made. Republican Legislatures in these states insure Republicans to be sent to the United States Senate.

With a Senate and President Republicans it is for the good of the country that the House of Representatives should also have a majority of Republicans. The questions that are to come up for settlement are the same as those with which the Texas cyclone interrupted and obstructed proceedings, there will be a constant storm that will measure its volume by the number of votes he has to back him.

In this broad and sensible view of the situation, it is imperative that every Republican do his whole duty; and to that end THE LEDGER urges upon the voters of the Ninth District the importance of voting for Mr. PUGH, who is the representative of Republican principles in the coming contest.

A certain member writes to a stamp dealer, "will some kind reader kindly send me for stamp flirtation?" The first rule is: Putting the stamp on a letter designedly anywhere excepting on the right hand upper corner of the envelope indicates that the writer is too foolish.

HER ANSWER.

Chicago Post.

"I have a long time in the far corner of the conservatory with Mr. Wiling last evening," suggested the mother. "What was going on?"

"Do you remember the occasion on which you became engaged to Pugh?" inquired the daughter, by way of reply.

"Then it ought not to be necessary for you to ask any questions."

Very gently the news was broken that they were to be married.

"Isn't it awful?" said Mrs. Jenks to her husband.

"Honesty's boy was run over and received internal injuries."

"Ach, you infernal! I know what I'm talking about."

After a quarrel of five minutes Jenks produced a dictionary and with considerable dignity informed his wife, "Pugh is dead."

"He was excommunicated," he explained. "I told you so!"

"Infernal means relating to the lower regions."

"Well, I suppose," replied Mrs. Jenks—and there was a ring of defiance in her voice—"ain't she where she was injured?"

DISASTER AT SEA.

The Steamer Mohegan With 200 Souls on Board Goes Ashore Off The Lizard.

RUMORED GREAT LOSS OF LIVES.

Out of Fifty Passengers and 150 of a Crew Only Thirty-one Persons Were Saved.

The Coast Guards Are Watching for Bodies and Wreckage.—The Life Boats Have Gone Into Port Hooton.—The Position of the Mohegan Is Serious.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Atlantic Transport Co.'s steamer Mohegan, from the China Trade, via Wards Furness-Leyland line, which left London for New York Thursday with 50 passengers and a crew of 150, is ashore off The Lizard, between the Manacles and the Lowlands.

It is rumored that there has been a great loss of life.

A coast guard message reports that the passengers are "drowning like rats."

Another account says: "Bodies are washing ashore, one being of a lady, lashed to a plank, with both legs severed."

Particulars as to the disaster are difficult to obtain.

It appears that when the Mohegan struck, the wind was blowing and the sea was running high.

Life boats put off from The Lizard and from Falmouth, one returning filled with passengers. Several were drowned; however, it is reported, on the passage of the life boat to the shore.

Another life boat saved six persons.

The coast at that point is extremely dangerous and the terrible scenes of numerous wrecks. Some years ago there was a moment set on foot to get a lightship placed there, but it failed.

A dispatch from Falmouth says the Mohegan foundered and was probably blown ashore by the heavy east wind after her machinery was disabled.

All the life boats were sent out now to try to approach the vessel.

LAWRENCE.—A life boat has landed 30 of the Mohegan's passengers and returned for more. One lady died after she was brought ashore.

It is reported that the position of the Mohegan is serious and that assistance is urgently needed.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—According to a dispatch just received from Falmouth, out of 500 persons comprising the passengers and crew of the Mohegan, only 31 have been saved. The vessel has gone ashore off The Lizard.

Only 31 have been saved. This intelligence was forwarded from the coast guard by telephone to Falmouth. The coast guard are watching for bodies and wrecks. The life boats have gone into Port Hooton.

The steamer Mohegan (then the Glenopair) arrived at New York on August 12 last on her maiden trip from London. She is a single screw, steel vessel of 4,510 tons register, 490 feet long by 68 feet beam and about 36 feet depth of hold. She had accommodations for 120 passengers and capacity for between 7,000 and 8,000 tons, and two steam turbines. Her commander is Capt. Griffin, commander of the Atlantic transport fleet.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis, (widow of the First and Only President of the Confederacy) arrived at New York on August 12 last on her maiden trip from London. The papers here believe the reports of a coup. The Etat Belge regards it as "the last desperate effort of the French general staff to save itself from downfall."

Other papers say that the conspirators had been meeting clandestinely at Versailles and that M. Brisson has intercepted cipher correspondence pointing to a design to seize 50 prominent republicans.

MILITARY PLOT.

An Effort to Disperse the Troops That Are Now in the French Capital.

THEY PREVENT SUCCESS OF THE STRIKE

The Duke of Orleans Has Arrived at Brussels to Watch the Course of Events.

The Last Desperate Effort of the French General Staff to Save Itself From Downfall—Prominent Republicans Are to Be Seized, It is Said.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A special to the World from Paris says: "Senior Abazurza, one of the Spanish peace commissioners, who was interviewed yesterday by the socialists to frighten the government into dispersing the troops that now prevent the success of the strike—to explain the rumors of a military conspiracy."

The minister of war, Gen. Guitell, and the absence of any straightforward and decided tend to encourage the belief that there must be some ground for the rumors, especially as the state mentions the telegrams alleged to have been sent by a French general to Prince Napoleon, which it says it is "difficult to believe possible in view of the control exercised by the telegraph authorities."

LOUNEVILLE, Oct. 15.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "It is impossible to obtain clear proofs of the existence of a plot. I believe, however, that the idea of some act of force certainly exists in military minds. Maddened and stung by violent criticism of the army arising out of the Dreyfus affair, they are especially anxious to interfere in the detention of Col. Picquet, for whom the entire military authority is responsible."

"Cuba is indemnity according to our view. The commissions will not have to consider any question of money indemnity."

"Is there no claim for the Maine?" "That does not fall within the scope of the commissions."

"It is true that a serious hitch has arisen between the commissions, and that a break in the negotiations is possible?"

"This rumor is a ridiculous exaggeration. No hatch has arisen."

"On what ground can Spain ask the United States to assume the Cuban debt?"

"Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico and has long been necessary to the United States. For that reason alone she might take upon herself the Cuban debt."

When the United States seizes Cuba she will instantly secure control of the customs, which will enable her to effect a conversion of the debt and reduce the interest from six to two per cent."

"You imply that Spanish relinquishment of sovereignty means American annexation, not Cuban independence?"

"Certainly, our relinquishment means the transfer of sovereignty to America, with all rights, therefore also to independence."

"Does that apply equally to the Philippines and their debt?"

"No. That case is absolutely opposite. America would be extremely unwise to start a policy of colonial expansion. Taking the Philippines would mean a colonial army, a colonial civil service and more ships."

"But the American people have fully counted on cost."

"They can not have done so because they do not know it. Of course, if the United States were seeking to obtain large interests in the far east the Philippines would be valuable. Such a policy, however, would entail constantly increasing sacrifices and involve international complications of the most enormous description."

LEAVING CUBA.

The Spanish Military Commissioners Report That Troops Are Being Sent to Spain as Fast as Possible.

HAVANA, Oct. 15.—The Spanish military commissioners Friday delivered an official note to the American commissioners giving the date when the Spanish troops shipped to Spain up to the present at 6,017, not including those who go by the route of Montserrat and Miguel Gallart, which will take 2,000 additional men. In addition it was announced that transports to carry the entire garrisons of Gibara, Holguin and Santiago de Cuba in division will leave on October 20, October 24, October 25 and October 26. After they have sailed, it is pointed out force the island of Cuba will have been entirely evacuated.

TURKEY DOES NOT BELIEVE IN CRUSADES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 15.—The ambassador of Turkey to the sultan transmitted to the Turkish government the decision of their government on the subject of Crete, which sits forth as well adhering strictly to their ultimatum, Turkey may possibly, later, be permitted to maintain a small force on the island as an emblem of Turkish authority.

LETTER FROM PONCE.

Mason County Boy Writes to His Friends Through The Ledger.

DETAILS OF MARCH AND CAMP.

THE LEDGER has received the following letter from George T. White, a member of Company K, First Kentucky, now at Ponce.

The writer is a son of Mr. L. C. White of Maysville.

CAMP JAMES H. WILSON, Oct. 18, 1861.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Mayfield, Ky.—Dear Sir:

We went to board the Hudson at New York. We had a rugged trip over Puerto Rico. We had a hard time getting across the island. It was pretty rough. We reached Ponce, Puerto Rico, on the 12th.

We got orders to sail around the coast of South America. We had a hard time.

The Eleven United States Regiments had a very hard time. They lost about seven men and had fourteen wounded. They had done well in town and as soon as we came into the country they were shot at.

Montgomery they hoisted the white flag and surrendered.

We had no trouble in landing and were given a good reception by the Spaniards.

We asked them if the Spaniards were in town and they said that they left just as soon as we got there. They had their barracks and there were found about 1,200 Spanish.

The Regulars captured about eighty soldiers. They were all captured and brought them to Mayaguez two weeks ago. We stayed there about two weeks. Thirty of us were captured and brought to the Hospital Company H marched out in darkness to San Juan. They were captured by the natives and robbing the town and we were sent to the hospital. We were almost all right and when we lay down after some guards, one of whom shortly after shot us, guards and grabbed our guns, ready to shoot us. We were told to get out what it meant the guard was a timid soul and he would not shoot us.

We stayed in this town about ten days when the rest of our battalion joined us and we marched from there to Yarico. It rained all the time and we were wet through.

We had no place to sleep except in the rain every day. We have a very nice camp. The streets are paved and the houses are built of wood.

The natives are very friendly.

Bananas are plentiful, as are oranges and guavas.
